

Organization of studies

Organization of studies Students who choose to begin their studies at the UPC, you can choose two routes in their studies: a) "Advanced Metallic Materials," b) "Polymers and Composites". Also be completed in the third quarter the itinerary "Bio / Nanomaterials" by students who choose this route in the first year at another university. Mobility is compulsory in the second year of studies must be performed at least one semester at another university in the consortium.

ERASMUS MUNDUS MASTER STUDIES IN ADVANCED MATERIALS SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING (AMASE)

STUDIES TO UPC

Beginning studies in the EEBE (UPC) can be performed two of the five routes (1 and 2). Students who start at other universities in the consortium in the second year can make routes 1, 2 and 5 at other universities and finalize the second year in the UPC. The routes 3 and 4 can be made only at the other universities of the consortium. The ECTS shown marked on the diagram corresponding to ECTS of technical courses. In the first three semesters must also be attended language 12 ECTS have to be chosen by the student's language level and language used at the universities of the consortium (German (UDS), French (INPL), English (LTH) and Spanish and English (UPC)).